Elena Salerno Flash is counsel in the Health Care, Real Estate, Corporate and Tax Practices. Ms. Flash advises nonprofit organizations from formation to dissolution on corporate affairs, tax law, and regulatory and contract issues. She also advises an array of large developers and banks on complex healthcare and real estate transactions, including tax-exempt bond financings. Ms. Flash has also established and continues to provide counsel to a myriad of not-for-profit tax exempt organizations, and has served as general counsel for numerous nonprofit groups, including acute care hospitals, long term care facilities and substance abuse service agencies. In particular, she has extensive experience representing continuing care retirement communities regarding formation, licensing, financing and operations.
